REVERENCE FOR LAW.

Y. P. S. C. E. Take Steps to Have a More Strict Enforcement. More Strict Enforcement.

Providence, R. I., July 2—In the meetings held Sunday of the 43 church societies composing the Providence union of the Y. P. S. C. E., a special service on the necessity for greater respect for the law as a preliminary for strict and general law enforcement was held. At each meeting, which was conducted on lines suggested by a special committee from the union, letters on the subject from former Presidents Benjamin. Harrison and Grover Cleveland were read.

and Grover Cleveland were read.
Former President Harrison quoted a part of his Nashville speech made in 1891, while chief magistrate of the nation, in which he said that laws being made for all should be universally respected and impartially enforced. The concluding paragraph of the letter of ex-President Cleveland was:

The Union Pacific have arranged for extra equipment on all trains for Kansas City July 4th and special train will leave Kansas City for Salina at 11 p. m. in addition to usual evening trains.
